Four stages of a morning on the Bosphorus

STAGE I – THE DEPARTURE
The lines are cast off. The city begins to drift away.
The yacht slips quietly away from the pier. Gradually, the sounds of the city fade, replaced by the gentle movement of the water, the breeze and the calls of seagulls. Within moments, the bustle of Istanbul gives way to a sense of calm. The day unfolds not on land, but upon the water.

As you settle into your seat, everything is already in place. A welcome offering and a selection of chilled appetisers await you, served even before the yacht leaves the pier. Every table enjoys a view of the Bosphorus, so there is no need to compete for the perfect seat by the window.
STAGE II – THE VOYAGE
The Bosphorus unfolds, with two continents passing gently by.
The sunlit palaces, elegant waterfront mansions and graceful arches of Istanbul's iconic bridges become the backdrop to your dining experience. The route takes you through the very heart of the Bosphorus, with the Maiden's Tower on one side and the picturesque waterfront of Ortaköy on the other.

Throughout the two-hour voyage, there is no need to hurry. The yacht takes its time, allowing you to savour the scenery and capture the most memorable views. The open upper deck invites you to step outside between courses, feel the breeze and admire Istanbul from an entirely different perspective.
STAGE III – THE DINING EXPERIENCE
An exceptional table, served as the journey unfolds.
Our kitchen works while the yacht glides along the Bosphorus, with each course arriving in harmony with the passing scenery. The main course is served midway through the voyage, as the yacht reaches one of the broadest stretches of the strait. The menu evolves with the seasons, allowing each time of year to bring its own character and flavours to the table.

Your table is yours to enjoy throughout the voyage. There is no need to watch the clock or feel hurried between courses. Our attentive service team understands the art of impeccable hospitality: knowing precisely when to be present and when to leave you to the moment.

STAGE IV – THE RETURN

The sunlight dances along the shores.

As the yacht turns towards the pier, Istanbul reveals another side of itself. The same waterfront palaces, historic mansions and bridges now appear bathed in daylight, revealing their architectural details and timeless beauty. One of the voyage's most memorable views awaits beneath the bridge, where dessert is served against this spectacular backdrop.

As the yacht gently approaches the pier, there is no rush to return ashore. You step back onto land having experienced Istanbul from two perspectives in a single daytime voyage — and carrying the memory of a city that looks entirely different from the water.
